

Applying for Undergraduate Admission

Students applying to a traditional undergraduate program should present a record of achievement that documents their academic experiences and their extracurricular and/or community activities. Skills in critical thinking, communication, reading and a solid foundation in writing and mathematics are highly desirable. The Office of Undergraduate Admission considers all academic criteria when evaluating applicants. This criteria includes academic achievement in high school or at the college/university level, GPA and course selection.

Application Steps

To apply, the following documents must be submitted before an application will be reviewed:

- £ A completed application for admission.
 - Students may apply for admission online at fresno.edu/apply.
 - It is free to apply. No application fee waiver code is needed!
- £ Official transcript(s) of all credits earned in high school and any college or university previously attended as a dual-enrolled student.
 - High school transcripts should reflect work through at least six semesters of high school to be considered.
 - Students who have not earned a high school diploma will be considered for admission based on certificates acquired through the General Education Development Tests (GED) or the California High School Proficiency Examination.
 - Transfer students are required to submit a high school transcript.
 - Transfer students will be reviewed for admission solely on college-level work if they have a minimum of 24 transferable units with a 2.4 academic GPA.
- £ Official transcript(s) from each post-secondary school attended (college or university).
 - Veterans seeking benefits must submit a DD214, military transcripts and must apply with the Department of Veteran's Affairs to determine eligibility.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International students desiring to attend FPU on an F-1 student visa may have additional required documentation. Contact the International Admission Office for more information.

NON-MATRICULATING/NON-DEGREE SEEKING STUDENTS

A non-matriculating or non-degree seeking student is someone interested in taking classes, but does not want a degree from FPU. Often these are students who have degrees but want to take additional classes for personal or professional development. A non-degree seeking student needs to submit an application for admission indicating non-degree status and provide proof of high school graduation or equivalent. Non-degree seeking students are not eligible for any federal, state or institutional aid. Other guidelines or restrictions may apply.

AUDIT

New students wishing to audit a class can submit an application for admission indicating audit status. Students auditing a class are not eligible for financial aid and will not receive course credit.

Applicant Statement

I certify that the information supplied on this application and other documents I have submitted are complete and accurate. I further grant Fresno Pacific University the right to verify any information contained herein. I understand that submitting false information is grounds for denial of my application, withdrawal of any offer of acceptance, cancellation of enrollment or any appropriate disciplinary action including degree revocation.

If admitted to Fresno Pacific University, I agree to abide by the standards for behavior and conduct as outlined in the Student Life Handbook, University Catalog and this application, including, but not limited to, acting always with civility and respect for all students, faculty and staff; acting in conformity with the Christian behavioral standards of FPU; adhering to the university's academic integrity standards; and the dispute resolution and appeal process. I understand that it is my responsibility to read and understand these standards and policies.

If requested, I agree to give proof of verification for financial documents which may include, but are not limited to, a copy of a U.S. tax return and W-2s filed by me or my family and will notify the Financial Aid Office of any changes in a timely manner. I understand that if I do not, I may not be eligible for financial aid at FPU.

Any offer of admission to Fresno Pacific University prior to the applicant's completion of high school is provisional, subject to successful academic work during their remainder of high school and proof of graduation, except for candidates who are applying for college entrance without high school graduation. Any offer of admission to an applicant transferring from another college is provisional subject to successful completion of course work in progress at the time of application and proof of good standing from the previous college. Meeting admission requirements does not guarantee admission. Admission to the university does not
